Dear Andrew,

Just a brief note to express my appreciation of the service given by Complete Framing for all our framing needs.

The items delivered for framing are valuable and often unusual memorabilia. In order to achieve maximum prices at our charity auctions, presentation is obviously extremely important. It is gratifying to know that Complete Framing has the experience to visualise the finished product and the ability to portray that to the client.

On occasions we aren't able to source memorabilia until the last minute and the efforts to complete the framing to meet our deadline has been crucial to the success of our auctions.

It helps to know that in the unlikely case that the purchasers of our items have any problems with the framing, there is a "10 year guarantee" on your workmanship so that it can be reframed at no further cost.

I look forward to our continued association.

Kind regards,
